WON BOTH GAMES.

The Maysvilles Came Very Near Shutting the Irontons Out Yesterday.

The second game between Maysville and Ironton was a complete walkover for the former. Had it not been for a very foolish play on the part of Nie in the last half of the ninth inning the visitors would have sustained a Waterloo.

Wellner twirled for Maysville and had the Irontons at his mercy. During the five innings he pitched only one little, miserably little, bit was all the visitors could make off of him.

The locals put up a magnificent and errorless game during his stay in the box. Wellner used all the deception he had at command. He sent some of them over the rubber like chained lightning on a greased track, while others were so slow you could count the seams on the ball and read Spalding's trade-mark plainly. During Wellner's administration only one ball went outside the diamond, and that was Conners's single in the fifth.

Wadsworth, on account of Wellner's arm feeling sore, went in to finish the game. Henry had both speed and command, and the two hits the visitors got off his delivery were made after a chance to shut them out was offered.

Lauderbach pitched for Ironton, and was an easy mark for the locals, especially Cox, who touched him up for four hits.

Rooney played great ball for the visitors at short. He had eight chances, one of them being a sensational running catch, and accepted them all in clever style.

Wadsworth played third again for five innings and got everything that came in his territory.

Cox, with the exception of a dropped ball, which was almost an excusable error, played a great game at first.

Frank's throw to the plate from center in the eighth inning was the feature of the game.

The locals took all the starch out of the visitors by scoring five runs in the first. Frank hit to third, but McCarthy missed the throw. Frank pilfered second. Rogers singled into right and took second on a bad throw in, Frank scoring. Cox sent a daisy cutter past short for a bag and Rogers took third and scored on a passed ball. Hill lifted one into right for a double and Cox scored. Wadsworth went out at first. Hill bunted and reached first on Lauderbach's low throw. Cake missed three inshoots. Hill stole second. Davis hit a hot one past second for a base and Nie and Hill scored. Wellner singled into left for a corner. Davis was caught napping at third and run down. A single, two errors and a wild throw gave Maysville two more tallies in the second.

Maysville captured two runs in the fourth. Frank flew out to Conners. Rogers got a base on balls. Cox rapped a scorcher passed third for a bag. Nie singled into left for a base and the bases were loaded. Rogers scored on a passed ball. Wadsworth flew out to second and Cox beat the throw to the plate. Nie went out at first.

After one was out in the eighth the locals scored. Wellner hit to left and took two bases on Conner's error. Wellner scored. Nie reached first on Cannon's error. Wadsworth flew out to short. Hill's hit forced Nie out at second. Hill poisoned second. Conners dropped Cake's skyrocket and Hill trotted home.

The visitors came in to take their last turn at the bat. Everybody thought it was a shutout for them. Rooney struck out. Wood worked a base on balls, then Conners took a base by being hit by a pitched ball. Cannon struck out. Conners the next batter up, had two strikes on him, when Nie threw to second to catch Conners. Frank caught the ball, but in throwing to the plate made a wild one and two Irontonians scored. This rattled Wadsworth completely. Conners hit to left for two bases and scored on McCarthy's double.

NOTES.

Only ten players will go to Cynthiana Monday.

What a pity we couldn't place another goose egg along with the eighth.

Cox again lead his team with the stick. Out of five times at the bat he made four hits.

Wadsworth accepted everything at third during the time he played that bag yesterday.

If the locals play with anything like the spirit they displayed in the game with Cynthiana here last Saturday they will win both games from the Harrison county boys.

Our boys go to Cynthiana for two games Monday and Tuesday. The team will arrive home Tuesday night and will play the All Professionals of Cincinnati Thursday and Friday.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Henry Smith, Jr., Loses One of His Fingers.

Henry Smith, Jr., who drives the dray for Ernie White, met with quite a severe accident this morning about 8 o'clock on Market street.

He was engaged in unloading a large paving stone, the kind they are putting down on Market street, together with several other workmen. One of the workmen had a crowbar under one end holding it up while Mr. Smith removed a block upon which the stone was resting on the dray.

In some unaccountable manner the holt of the crowbar slipped, letting the weight of stone down upon the middle finger of Mr. Smith's right hand, mashing it so severely as to necessitate amputation at the first knuckle joint.

Mr. Smith was taken to Dr. Pangburn's office, where his injury was attended to.

The accident will keep him from working for several weeks.

Rev. R. Strauss, the colored Baptist Minister of Mayslick, is holding a protracted meeting at Manchester.

"Her hair always looks so perfectly lovely." Why? Because she uses Ayer's Hair Vigor. That's the secret of its luster.

John Shugert of the Adam Forepaugh show came in yesterday morning to look after the advertising of the Opera-house here and at Winchester for E. L. Kinne-man this season.

Reunion Army West Virginia. The reunion at Ironton, O., on August 29th, 30th and 31st promises to be one of the most interesting ever held. The C. and O. Railway will make a rate of one fare for the round trip, and an immense turnout is expected.

The man born in June will be of small stature and very fond of women and children. The woman will be flighty and a high liver, but she will repent and sober down at forty.

The man born in July will be of military tastes, a trifle pompous but a good fellow withal. The woman will have a sulky temper; she will pout and be handsome.

The man born in August will be ambitious and courageous. The woman will be what New Englanders call "capable"; she will be equal to running a farm or editing a newspaper.

The man born in September will be strong and wise; he will make a few mistakes and live and die rich. The woman will be loved by her friends, have many suitors and die an old maid.

The man born in October will write poetry when young, then he will dabble in politics and wind up as a reformer. The woman will be pretty and late in life an apostle of total abstinence.

The man born in November will have a fine face, great address and, if not careful, he will be "a gay Lothario." The woman will be large, liberal-minded and fond of novelty and novels.

The man born in December will have a passionate temper, yet will be the first to forgive. The woman will be a "lady bountiful" to the "deserving poor" but a terror to tramps and the wilfully "unemployed."

THE PRETTY SUMMER GIRL.

He was wandering on the Broadway,
She was sitting on the sand;
A sweeter, prettier little woman
There was never in the land.

Her dress of lawn was white as snow-flakes,
A jaunty hat shaded her eyes—
Those hazel eyes, so soft and tender—
Best, you should shun them if you're wise.

Her figure—oh, it was perfection,
So willowy and lithe and light,
Her curls were riotous to distraction,
Her pouting lips witheld delight.

And now the little maid was weeping,
A kerchief dainty hid her face.
"Let me comfort you," the youth said,
"Till of tears there's not a trace."

But the little summer maiden
Never answered, only sighed,
I believe for her that moment
Gladly he'd have fought or died.

So he started to cross her,
Told her that his love was true;
If her heart and lips she'd give him,
Surely he would never rue.

Then she raised her head so shyly,
Glanced, with tearful, pleading eyes—
Oh, they seemed like tender sunbeams
Shining through the cloud-bid skies.

Yes! there followed an engagement—
Just a summer one, you know—
Love so easily pledged and plighted,
Quick to come and quick to go.

But 'twas jolly while it lasted;
How the summer months did fly.
"Tell me, dear, when first I met you,
What then made my sweetheart cry?"

With a mirth she sought to stifle
And to bury 'neath a sigh—
"Oh," she said, "it was no trifle—
A little bug got in my eye!"
